The melodious tunes of music filled the air, uplifting the spirits, while the dance performance by grade 9 mesmerized everyone present.

Amidst laughter and cheer, we took to the grounds to fly colorful kites, symbolizing the freedom and joy of the season. And the sight of children donning yellow attire filled everyone's hearts with joy, truly embodying the spirit of Basant Panchami!

As one of our students eloquently put it, "Basant Panchami is not just a festival; it's a celebration of new beginnings and knowledge. Today, we embrace the vibrancy of spring and the wisdom of goddess Saraswati."
